The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1900.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

THE HIGHLAND BRIGADE.

On Wednesday last our evening contemporary published a telegram from Colombo which stated that "The soldiers composing the Highland Brigade with Lord MERRITS's Column, the 2nd Royal Highlanders (Black Watch), 2nd Seaforth Highlanders, 1st Highland Light Infantry, 1st Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders and 1st Gordon Highlanders, refuse absolutely to salute Lieutenant General Lord MERRITS." We earnestly trust that this telegram, which has, so far, received no confirmation, will prove to be erroneous. Our contemporary remarks that the conduct of the men smacks of insubordination, but military men with whom we have spoken upon the subject use a much stronger term and express the opinion that if the news be true, and they hope that it is not, the whole of the insubordinate Highlanders will be sent to the rear and deprived of the part that they would have otherwise taken in the operations. For our own part we cannot believe the report to be true. Highland troops have always been noted as amongst the smartest of the British Army and it is difficult to believe that in the face of the enemy, as it were, they would take a course which, while perhaps intended to indicate that they had lost faith in their commander, would certainly cause the commander to lose faith in them and doubt their trustworthiness to carry out his orders. We cannot believe that trained and tried soldiers would ever have stooped to such childishness.

THE "BUNDESRATH" INCIDENT.

It is somewhat difficult to credit Reuters statement that besides having irritated Germany we shall be obliged to pay a heavy indemnity for the detention of the "Bundesrath." We have been told that Britain's reply to Germany's protest upheld her right to search neutral vessels and this being the case Reuters's piece of news comes as a complete surprise. May it not be that the telegram has been mutilated and that it should have read as Continental opinion and not as a fact? If we are not allowed to search neutral ships, then any little two-penny-half-penny state which happened to be at war with us could obtain all the arms and ammunition it required by the simple expedient of shipping them in foreign bottoms. We hope there is a mistake somewhere.

CONGRATULATION.

We congratulate Major Brown, R.A.M.C., and Mr. McKie upon the success which attended their first onslaught upon filth. It is true that Major Brown's first motion was negative but still Kowloon residents will have the satisfaction of knowing that they will only have to endure the nuisance for another three months. Still, we think that steps should have been taken to ensure its immediate removal if possible; we agree with Mr. Osborne that latrines need not necessarily be offensive, but when one is so, and is a constant source of complaint, the sooner it is done away with the better. Evidently Major Brown and Mr. McKie are not entirely deficient in the sense of smell as so many of our Sanitary Officials appear to be.

Yesterday evening the members of the Hongkong Boat Club had a scratch race between themselves. No. 3 took up the position of third and managed to keep it throughout the race. Only once was there any doubt of the result and that was caused by a junk crossing No. 1 boat, which obliged their coxswain to steer in a most erratic manner. No. 2, however, were not fazed enough to take advantage of their rival's misfortune. No. 1 coming in an easy winner. No. 3's stroke towards the end of the race was rowing purely with his arms and not utilizing the muscles of his back in any way. Time 5 mins. 34 secs.

THE LATRINE QUESTION.

At yesterday's meeting of the Sanitary Board, Major Brown, R.A.M.C., in moving that the latrine in Elgin Road, Kowloon, be removed, said that it almost seemed as if sites for latrines had been selected on the principal of making them the greatest possible nuisance to the greatest possible number of persons and that the Elgin Road latrine was a striking example and had been complained of most bitterly by Kowloon residents. He wished to have it removed to a site where it would cause annoyance to as few persons as possible.

The motion was seconded by Dr. Hartigan. Mr. Osborne said that the latrine belonged to the Wharf and Godown Company and he understood that the Sanitary Board had no power to order its removal. As a matter of fact, arrangements had been made for its removal in deference to the wishes of the Kowloon residents.

Mr. Ormsby remarked that he saw no objection to a latrine being in a public place and did not see why it should be offensive, but, in view of its removal having been promised by Mr. Osborne, he had nothing further to say on the matter.

In reply to Major Brown, Mr. Osborne said that the latrine would be removed within the next three months.

Dr. Clarke pointed out that the only way in which the Board could deal with a private latrine was to summon the owner for committing a nuisance.

The motion was put and lost.

Major Brown then put his second motion, for the removal of the latrine between Knutsford and Ormsby Terraces, saying that there had been continual complaints from the residents in the vicinity.

Mr. McKie seconded.

After some discussion, Mr. Osborne proposed an amendment—that the contractor be required to construct a bamboo pier leading below low watermark and establish the latrine at the end of it. This amendment was carried.

Mr. McKie proposed the removal of the latrine situated on the western boundary of the Cricket ground, saying that it was a great nuisance to those going that way to the Train Station and to frequenters of the Cricket ground. After some discussion the motion was amended and it was decided that the latrine should be removed to some spot more westward to the north of the City Hall.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

(Before His Honor W. M. Goodman, Acting Chief Justice.)

January 18th.

ARMED ROBBERY.

The witnesses for the prosecution in the armed robbery case supported the statements made by Mr. Pollock in his opening address to the jury.

Evidence for the defence was then gone into which showed that the Prosecutor had been employed by Tam Yit for two months, as his father had stolen the $10,000 from him.

The Prosecutor on being recalled denied ever having been in Tam Yit's employ and challenged him to produce his wages book.

The book was produced and showed payments made to Prosecutor, who, then said the book produced did not belong to Tam Yit but to another man named Chung Tong.

Chung Tong was then called and sworn. He said Lam Hing, the Prosecutor, used to be employed by Tam Yit as a fooki and it was not right for him to steal his master's money.

His Lordship warned Lam Hing against not speaking the truth, but he still persisted in denying ever having been in the employ of Tam Yit.

His Lordship, addressing the jury, said, the only witness for the prosecution was Lam Yit. That man had been convicted by the Magistrate of having stolen the very money which he alleged the prisoner stole from him. Of course people must not rob a thief, but the thing was this, had they any reasonable doubt about the guilt of the prisoner, and were they prepared to find him guilty on the unsupported evidence of Tam Yit. Under the circumstances he did not think it would be safe to do so.

The jury found the prisoner not guilty.

His Lordship believed Tam Yit had been telling lies, and he sentenced him to three months' hard labour.

January 19th.

This morning Pang Hin Yau and Pang Tak Ying came up for sentence. They having pleaded "guilty" to the third count of the indictment, viz. conspiracy to cheat and defraud.

Mr. Francis in appealing to His Lordship for a lenient sentence said that the whole matter was a family one, and the learned counsel related how the land had been first left to Pang Kong, when a boy, by his father, who on reaching manhood when he came into the property assigned one half to his mother. This, Mr. Francis observed, might have been prompted by pure filial affection but that the law looked upon these transactions with a certain amount of suspicion, and the probability was that until the day of his death Pang Kong was sorry that he had done so. When the mother died, she left her property to Pang Kong's infant son, but did not make the father the trustee, but Pang Ling Yau, Pang Kong's brother was appointed.

Pang Kong naturally felt hurt and Mr. Francis respectfully submitted that that was at his instigation that the fraudulent deed was drawn up, as he wished to obtain control of the property himself. When Pang Kong died he left his property to his son (the same one as had been left his grand-mother's property) and appointed his sister, not his widow, as guardian. It was owing to Pang Ling Yau's conduct subsequent to the death of Pang Kong that he had advised Mr. Francis to plead guilty to the third count.

Mr. Francis pleaded guilty to the first prisoner because it was probably at Pang Kong's instigation and because in point of fact no actual harm had been done the boy, the land at the present time being registered in the Land Office in his name, and Pang Ling Yau was willing to renounce all rights as the boy's trustee, and for another to be appointed. For the second prisoner, Mr. Francis asked that his youth, only 18 when the fraudulent deed was signed, might be taken into account. The First Offenders Act was not in operation in Hongkong but his spirit so impregnated British law that he hoped his Lordship would deal leniently with him. The widow of Pang Kong was in Court and if his Lordship would call her she would say that she did not press for a severe sentence.

Mr. Pollock said he regretted having to ask that the extreme penalty be inflicted for a misdemeanour, as they had pleaded guilty of conspiring with a wicked and criminal intention to cheat and defraud Pang Shui Cheong. His learned friend had tried to show that there was no wicked intention. There was another serious matter; that in the affidavit filed by the first prisoner he attempted to show that he was not the trustee of the boy but of another one, the son of a concubine; this he must have known was false and had been proved so by two of the witnesses.

On passing sentence His Lordship said:—
There are circumstances in this case to which I think it my duty to call attention.

On 14th November, 1899, a writ was issued in the original civil jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, on behalf of a little boy named Pang Shui Cheong, by his next friend, against the two prisoners as defendants praying that a Deed of Assignment, dated 24th October, 1898, purporting to be an assignment by the first prisoner of an undivided moiety of Section 1 of Inland Lot No. 202, should be declared fraudulent and void, and that the assignee, who purported to be the little boy's next friend, was personated by the second prisoner, and that the Deed should be cancelled and the Registration thereof, at the Land Office, should be vacated and the interest of the first prisoner in the property as Trustee for the little boy, should be assigned and vested in some other trustee for him. In other words, it was suggested that the first prisoner had, in reality, assigned to the second prisoner the property of the little boy with a view to cheat the child out of the land to which he was entitled as beneficiary.

On the 6th December, 1899, Mr. Reece, the Solicitor for the Plaintiff, applied to me for a decree in the Civil Suit by consent of Defendants, practically in terms of the writ, and filed an affidavit in support with the following document as an Exhibit:—"We the undersigned, Pang Wing-yau of No. 7 Pottinger Street, Victoria, Hongkong, Sheriff, and Pang Tak-ying of No. 177 Hollywood Road, Victoria aforesaid, Trader, hereby consent to the Indenture of Assignment bearing date the 24th day of October 1898 and expressed to be made between Pang Hing-yau of the one part and Pang Shui Cheong (in fact personated by Pang Tak-ying) of the other part, of one undivided half part or share of land in and to be called Section 1 of Inland Lot No. 202 being situate, situate and cancelled and the Registration thereof at the Land Office being vacated and to all the estate and interest of Pang Hing-yau in the said half part or share being assigned to or vested in Pang Tak-ying, or some other Trustee or Trustees for the benefit of her son Pang Shui Cheong."

Dated this 3rd day of November 1899.
Witness J. F. Reece, Solicitor, Hongkong, Interpreted &c.
Signed in Chinese by Pang Hing-yau and Pang Tak-ying.

I found, however, that criminal proceedings against a private person were proceeding, at the time of the Magistrate and I had my suspicions that, when my decree had been obtained, the criminal proceedings would be dropped and that the charges of forgery and conspiracy might not be proceeded with. I could not understand otherwise, why, pending a remand at the Magistrate, Mr. Reece, the Solicitor for the prosecution, should have interviewed the prisoners with his Interpreter and obtained from them a document so fatal to their chance of defending themselves; especially as the prisoners were defended by Solicitor, at all events from 6th November. The investigation of the charge at the Magistrate was commenced on 25th October, 1899, and there were a great many reasons. The prosecution was a private one and I deemed it my duty to call the attention of the Attorney-General to the matter so that any attempt to hush up the criminal aspect of the case, if a crime had really been committed, in consideration of the cancellation of the deed should not succeed without the consent of some responsible officer. In the event, the case was committed for trial and the two prisoners pleaded guilty yesterday, to the third count, which alleges that they conspired and agreed together, on 24th October, 1898, fraudulently to cheat and defraud the little boy, Pang Shui Cheong, out of his undivided moiety of the land known as Section 1 of Inland Lot 202. Now, when one looks at the deed of the 24th October, 1898, it is clear that the document is a fraudulent conveyance. It recites, inter alia, that the first prisoner is trustee to assign the property to Pang Shui Cheong on his attaining manhood. The first prisoner therefore knew he was a trustee. It further recites that Pang Shui Cheong had attained the age of twenty-one years and had requested the first prisoner to assign to him. As a matter of fact, this was a falsehood, for the little boy is not this seven or eight years of age, but to carry through the fraud the second prisoner persuaded the boy and became a party to the deed as if he had been the boy grown up to manhood. Of course, after registration at the Land Office which was duly effected, the deed being duly drawn up at the Solicitor's office, there was nothing to prevent the second prisoner from assigning the property to a purchaser and going off with the money. Fortunately however, this has not been done. I adjourned the case yesterday to allow of affidavits in mitigation of sentence being filed. The prisoners have, respectively, filed an affidavit each accordingly.

The first prisoner alleges he had no fraudulent intent but executed the deed at the request of Pang Kong the father of the little boy.

Pang Kong died last May, and I am not aware of any evidence which I believe in support of this charge against his memory.

The second prisoner alleges in his affidavit that he was only eighteen years old, on 24th October, 1898, and that he executed the deed under the influence of his mother and uncle (since deceased) and in entire ignorance of what he was really doing. But the deed recites that the boy whom he personated had arrived at manhood, and though I am willing to make some allowance in consideration of the second prisoner's age, I believe he knew perfectly well he was a party to a wicked and fraudulent proceeding.

I will deal with the case under Ordinance 14 of 1898 and of course sentence the prisoners only on the count to which they have pleaded guilty. The sentence on the first prisoner is two years' imprisonment with hard labour, and on the second prisoner (as he is young) the sentence will be one year's imprisonment with hard labour.

The Court then adjourned sine die.

A NEW PAPER.

We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of a New Chinese newspaper published in the Colony and entitled China, which, like the Kokumin Shinbun, published in Japan, has an English column. The aims of the new paper are set forth as follows:—

OUR PROGRAMME.

As this is the first issue of the China we feel that it is our duty to state clearly our opinions concerning China, which are as follows:—

1. It is our sincere desire to see the peoples of England and China draw closer together in the bonds of friendship as we feel certain that if they were better acquainted with one another many of the prejudices existing on both sides would vanish and it seems to us that there is no better medium for bringing this about than the publication in this Colony of a daily newspaper which can be read either by Britishers or Chinamen.

2. We are in favour of complete reform in China—political—financial—judicial—commercial and social and towards this end our best energies will ever be directed, and we feel sure that in our efforts in this direction we shall always receive the sympathy of the British people.

3. We are fully aware of the necessity for maintaining the integrity of China, but we feel that this should be done by forces from within and that our country must learn to depend upon her own resources and thus frustrate the machinations of those Powers who seek to bring about her destruction.

4. Humiliating as it is we are bound to admit that at the present day almost everything connected with China is in an utterly corrupt condition, but this we hold to be entirely the outcome of the gross dishonesty of the Peking government and its Manchoo officials, who have for the last two and a half centuries been the great barrier to Chinese progress and reform. Yet, we are not without hope that great changes for the better may take place in China; but it will require considerable energy on the part of the patriot—portion of the Chinese people to make the ruling classes understand their true position and realize the fact that, if China is to continue as a nation, she must awaken and quickly.

5. It is our opinion that one of China's greatest necessities is a sound Constitutional government which would place the legislation of the country entirely in the hands of the people. This would be followed by what is so sadly needed, the general reformation of the laws of the Empire and the establishment of the system of trial by jury
